

Religion, Value, and a Secular Culture

November 5-6, 2012, Durban, South Africa

Religion, Governance & Africa in the World

Understanding Africa in Africa through Research, Teaching and Learning

1. To facilitate, research, lectures and seminars on religion and governance
2. To facilitate theological reflection focusing on issues around women, faith and governance
3. To organize seminars and symposia around African heroes of Transformational Leadership
4. To encourage dialogue on peace-building, religious tolerance and reconciliation
5. To encourage discussions through the media on the political development of Africa

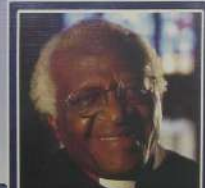

J.L. Dube
lectures and seminars on Religion and Governance Project

C. Wasike
Women, Faith, and Governance
Project

R.N. Mandela
Heroes of Transformational Leadership
Project

D. Tutu
Peace and Reconciliation
Project

M.M. Garvey
Africa in the World
Project

Religion, Governance & Africa in the World

*Understanding Africa in Africa
through Research, Teaching and Learning*

1. To facilitate, research, lectures and seminars on religion and governance
2. To facilitate theological reflection focusing on issues around women, faith and governance
3. To organize seminars and symposia around African heros of Transformational Leadership
4. To encourage dialogue on peace building, religious tolerance and reconciliation
5. To encourage discussions through the media on the political development of Africa

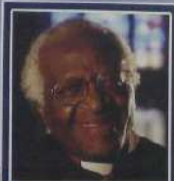

J.L. Dube
lectures and seminars on
Religion and Governance project

C. Maseke
Women, Faith and Governance
Project

R.N. Mandela
Heroes of
Transformational Leadership
Project

O. Tutu
Peace and Reconciliation
Project

