

This joint International Conference is the result of an effort which began with the identification by Professor Charles Taylor, author of A Secular Age, of four disjunctions of Church and People relating to (a) seekers who have left ecclesial practice in search of the Spirit, (b) the magisterium charged with pastoral responsibilities; and (c) contemporary moral guidance, (d) in a world of plural spiritualities. Presently the project is working to articulate four emerging characteristics of the Church as (a) not only listening to the experience of the laity (b) but discerning the path ahead, and hence (c) welcoming the seeker and (d) servicing their broad religious needs in a context deeply marked by pluralism and diversity.

Scholars around the world – but for now particularly in the West – are invited to join the effort of Church renewal which this Conference represents, based on the work of more than a dozen Research Teams in different parts of Europe and North America. As a joint project of the Council for Research in Values and Philosophy (RVP) with the Pontificia Università Gregoriana (PUG) in Rome, the Conference intends to contribute to the universal Church as it faces the many present challenges. As such, the Conference will also function as a launching pad for similar initiatives to follow on the impact of secularization across Asia, Africa and Latin America. The hope is to contribute to the worldwide renewal of the Church in search of Truth, Beauty and the Good as the emergence of God's Kingdom in human history.

This joint program of the Pontificia Università Gregoriana and the Council for Research in Values and Philosophy has been made possible by the generous support of the Our Sunday Visitor Institute and the Raskob Foundation.
