

Responsibility Personal and Social: Foundations for Life in a Global Age

August 22-September 24, 2011

Washington, DC

A man with dark hair, wearing a light-colored short-sleeved button-down shirt and dark trousers, stands on the left side of the frame. He is looking towards the center of the group.

A woman with dark hair tied back, wearing a black dress with a white floral pattern, stands next to the man on the left. She is holding a glass and looking towards the center.

An older man with white hair and glasses, wearing a dark polo shirt and light-colored trousers, stands in the center. He is gesturing with his hands as if speaking.

A woman with short, wavy blonde hair, wearing a dark long-sleeved top and a light-colored skirt, stands to the right of the older man. She is looking towards him.

A woman with long brown hair and bangs, wearing a sleeveless patterned dress with a dark neckline, stands on the far right. She is holding a glass and looking towards the group.

The dining table is covered with a light-colored tablecloth and is laden with food. There are four plates of fried dumplings or pastries, a pizza with various toppings, and a bowl of green and purple grapes. Two lit red candles in holders are on the table, and a dark wine bottle is visible on the right side.

The background shows a living area through an open doorway. There is a light-colored sofa, a window with light-colored curtains, and a small table with a patterned tablecloth. A framed picture hangs on the wall above the doorway. The room is warmly lit, likely by a lamp on the left and the candles on the table.

Three men standing in a room. The man on the left is wearing a light blue and white vertically striped button-down shirt and glasses.

The man in the center is wearing a dark blue polo shirt with horizontal white and red stripes, glasses, and is holding a small white plate with a spoon.

The man on the right is wearing a black t-shirt with the text "HENRY IV" and "part one" on it, glasses, and has a goatee.

HENRY IV
part one

