A devoted soul, upon contemplating the number seven, and that used a message to be believed that he had made the mistake and was being led astray.
"If my opinion were such that the number seven is the only one that is right, that is enough, and I will have it in my power to show that the number seven is the number of the Lord."

God realization is like a mountain peak. From the top you can see all the paths leading to it. All are arduous but all lead to the summit. Only people on the summit or who approach the summit know that all paths lead to it. It is the people at the foot of the mountain who fight over which path is superior.
