The Perfect Man (al-Insān al-ʿAdīm)
and the Recovery of Human Dignity

Prof. Dr. Mulyadhi Kartanegara

Professor of Islamic Law

Introduction

The concept of the Perfect Man is a central theme in Islamic law and ethics. It refers to a person who has reached the highest level of moral and intellectual perfection. This concept is closely related to the idea of human dignity, which is a fundamental principle in Islamic law. The recovery of human dignity is a key objective of Islamic law, and it is achieved through the cultivation of the Perfect Man. This process involves the development of the individual's character, intellect, and spiritual life. The Perfect Man is a person who is just, honest, and upright, and who is committed to the welfare of the community. The recovery of human dignity is a process that requires the support of the community and the guidance of Islamic law.
